

THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN.

The success of this paper as a literary journal, combined with the ordinary news features of the daily edition, has been as great as it has been rapid. The following extract from that of the Daily is constantly increasing. Advertisers will do us to make a copy of this for us.

Among the special articles prepared for the issue of August 26 are the following:

PORTLAND REVISITED, by H. W. Scott, editor of THE OREGONIAN, being personal reminiscences of a recent trip to that section.

GRANT IN PEAS, by Gen. Grant, Bazaar.

The recent cylinder prints of Grant's six months in the cabinet under Lincoln, are quoted in full in the Times's column.

PHILADELPHIA, by S. A. Clarke, a sketch of the life and manners of that city.

NEW YORK LETTERS, from the English, Scotch, Irish and French Advertiser.

BRILLIANT PARADE, a thrilling Australian sketch, by Roger Whetstone, Bart. for Arthur.
